

✂️ A TWEET CARD FOR MOM

how-to ideas!

MAMA CHICKEN LEGS

BABY CHICK BEAK

MATERIALS NEEDED:

A6 Plum Folded Cards • 8 1/2" x 11" Poppy Cover • 4" Round Eco-White Label Sheets • 2 1/2" Round Curry Label Sheets
1 1/4" Round Curry Label Sheets • Scissors • Glue Stick • Pen

INSTRUCTIONS:

Assemble baby chick first by adhering one 2 1/2" round curry label for body and one 1 1/4" round curry label for head as shown onto plum card. Create baby chick's little flapping wing by folding one 1 1/4" round curry label in half with sticky sides together. Apply adhesive to one corner of wing and stick in place, as shown. Cut baby chick's beak from poppy cover and stick in place. Draw in single black dot for eye.

Assemble mama chicken by adhering one 4" round eco-white label to left side of plum card as shown, and cut off excess label on sides. Create mama chicken's large flapping wing by folding one 4" round eco-white label in half with sticky sides together. Apply adhesive to top straight edge of wing and stick in place, as shown. Cut off excess wing and stick straight edge of wing along the side of the card. Cut mama chicken's legs from poppy cover and stick in place.

Write a message such as, "i ♥ my new mom" or "have a tweet mother's day!", above baby chick.